EXTENSION OF REWARD FOR JAMIEL ANDRE SHAW

On March 11, 2008, the Board of Supervisors approved a reward offer of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the murder of Jamiel Andre Shaw. The reward was extended on June 4, 2008, but will expire on December 6, 2008.

On Sunday, March 2, 2008 at approximately 8:30 p.m., 17- year old Los Angeles High School football star, Jamiel Andre Shaw, was shot and killed in the 2100 block of 5th Avenue, near the Santa Monica Freeway.

Jamiel had been named the football team's "Most Valuable Player" and football coach, Hardy Williams, described Jamiel as a "Houdini on the football field." As a junior, the standout player rushed for more than 1,000 yards last year, scored 11 touchdowns, returned punts and kickoffs and played defensive back.

Jamiel's mother, Anita Shaw, is a sergeant in the Army serving her second tour of duty in Iraq. She was coming home in the aftermath of her son's death.

Jamiel Shaw, Sr. heard the gunfire from their home and went outside to find his son on the ground. Jamiel was taken to a hospital where he later died.

Investigators believed the murder was not racially motivated, although it was gang motivated.

The gunmen were only described as Latino males, and were last seen driving a white compact sedan north on Fifth Avenue.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Approve the extension of the $10,000 reward in return for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the murder of 17-year old Jamiel Andre Shaw, who was shot and killed on Sunday, March 2, 2008 at approximately 8:30 p.m. in the 2100 block of 5th Avenue, near the Santa Monica Freeway.
